ILLINOIS AFL-CIO ENDORSES STATE SENATE CANDIDATE RACHELLE AUD CROWE

GLEN CARBON, IL — State senate candidate Rachelle Aud Crowe announced today that she has been endorsed by the Illinois AFL-CIO in the election for the 56th Illinois Senate District. The labor union represents nearly 900,000 members throughout the state.

“If elected, I promise to always stand up for the hard-working men and women of Illinois,” Crowe said. “I’m thrilled to announce this endorsement. AFL-CIO is a strong voice for working families across Illinois and I look forward to working with them to put Illinois back on the right track .”

“We’re proud to endorse Rachelle and stand with her in support of working families in the 56th District and Illinois,” said Michael Carrigan, Illinois AFL-CIO President. “In Springfield, Rachelle will fight to protect collective bargaining, worker’s compensation, safe working environments, and investment in our local economies.”

Crowe has also been endorsed by Senator Bill Haine, the Illinois Pipe Trades, the Southwestern Laborers, and the Madison County Democrats. Crowe serves as a Madison County Assistant State’s Attorney and has successfully represented victims in hundreds of violent crime prosecutions. Crowe and her husband are raising their two young children in Glen Carbon and are members of the St. Mary’s Catholic Church in Edwardsville.

The 56th Illinois Senate District compromises all or parts of Alton, Bethalto, Caseyville, Collinsville, East Alton, Edwardsville, Elsay, Fairview Heights, Glen Carbon, Godfrey, Granite City, Madison, Maryville, O’Fallon, Pontoon Beach, Roxana, Shiloh, South Roxana, Swansea, and Wood River.
